

1 Corinthians 13:4-5

Love is patient and kind. Love is not jealous, it does not brag, and it is not proud. Love is not rude, it is not selfish, and it cannot be made angry easily. Love does not remember wrongs done against it.

Philippians 2:3

In whatever you do, don't let selfishness or pride be your guide. Be humble, and honor others more than yourselves.

1 Corinthians 10:24

Try to do what is good for others, not just what is good for yourselves.

James 3:16

Where there is jealousy and selfishness, there will be confusion and every kind of evil.

Proverbs 11:25

Give freely, and you will profit. Help others, and you will gain more for yourself.

Romans 15:2

but do what pleases them and is for their good. We should do whatever helps the church grow stronger in faith.

Proverbs 18:2

Fools don't want to learn from others. They only want to tell their own ideas.

Mark 12:31

The second most important command is this: 'Love your neighbor the same as you love yourself.' These two commands are the most important."

1 Corinthians 3:18

Don't fool yourselves. Whoever thinks they are wise in this world should become a fool. That's the only way they can be wise.

Acts 20:24

I don't care about my own life. The most important thing is that I finish my work. I want to finish the work that the Lord Jesus gave me to do to tell people the Good News about God's grace.

Psalms 119:36

Give me the desire to follow your rules, not the desire to get rich.

Galatians 2:20

So I am not the one living now it is Christ living in me. I still live in my body, but I live by faith in the Son of God. He is the one who loved me and gave himself to save me.

Mark 8:34

Then Jesus called the crowd and his followers to him. He said, "Any of you who want to be my follower must stop thinking about yourself and what you want. You must be willing to carry the cross that is given to you for following me.
