

Mark 10:27

Jesus looked at them and said, "For mortals it is impossible, but not for God; for God all things are possible."

Luke 18:27

He replied, "What is impossible for mortals is possible for God."

Mark 9:23

Jesus said to him, "If you are able! -All things can be done for the one who believes."

Jeremiah 32:27

See, I am the Lord, the God of all flesh; is anything too hard for me?

Psalms 139:13-14

For it was you who formed my inward parts; you knit me together in my mother's womb. I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made. Wonderful are your works; that I know very well.

Luke 1:37

For nothing will be impossible with God."

Matthew 19:26

But Jesus looked at them and said, "For mortals it is impossible, but for God all things are possible."

Luke 9:16-17

And taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven, and blessed and broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd. And all ate and were filled. What was left over was gathered up, twelve baskets of broken pieces.

Matthew 17:20

He said to them, "Because of your little faith. For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you."

Luke 8:50

When Jesus heard this, he replied, "Do not fear. Only believe, and she will be saved."

Luke 13:10-17

Now he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath. And just then there appeared a woman with a spirit that had crippled her for eighteen years. She was bent over and was quite unable to stand up straight. When Jesus saw her, he called her over and said, "Woman, you are set free from your ailment." When he laid his hands on her, immediately she stood up straight and began praising God. But the leader of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had cured on the sabbath, kept saying to the crowd, "There are six days on which work ought to be done; come on those days and be cured, and not on the sabbath day." But the Lord answered him and said, "You hypocrites! Does not each of you on the sabbath untie his ox or his donkey from the manger, and lead it away to give it water? And ought not this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan bound for eighteen long years, be set free from this bondage on the sabbath day?" When he said this, all his opponents were put to shame; and the entire crowd was rejoicing at all the wonderful things that he was doing.

Mark 6:49-50

But when they saw him walking on the sea, they thought it was a ghost and cried out; for they all saw him and were terrified. But immediately he spoke to them and said, "Take heart, it is I; do not be afraid."

Matthew 21:21

Jesus answered them, "Truly I tell you, if you have faith and do not doubt, not only will you do what has been done to the fig tree, but even if you say to this mountain, 'Be lifted up and thrown into the sea,' it will be done.

Psalm 9:1

I will give thanks to the Lord with my whole heart; I will tell of all your wonderful deeds.

Acts of the Apostles 22:7

I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?'

Acts of the Apostles 1:9

When he had said this, as they were watching, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him out of their sight.

Matthew 1:22-23

All this took place to fulfill what had been spoken by the Lord through the prophet: "Look, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and they shall name him Emmanuel," which means, "God is with us."

Isaiah 7:14

Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign. Look, the young woman is with child and shall bear a son, and shall name him Immanuel.

John 20:8-9

Then the other disciple, who reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed; for as yet they did not understand the scripture, that he must rise from the dead.
